

SHIELD

1982

Between the dark and the daylight,
When the night is beginning to lower,
Comes a pause in the day's occupations,
That is known as the Children's Hour.

Longfellow

Annie Wright HS
Tacoma, WA

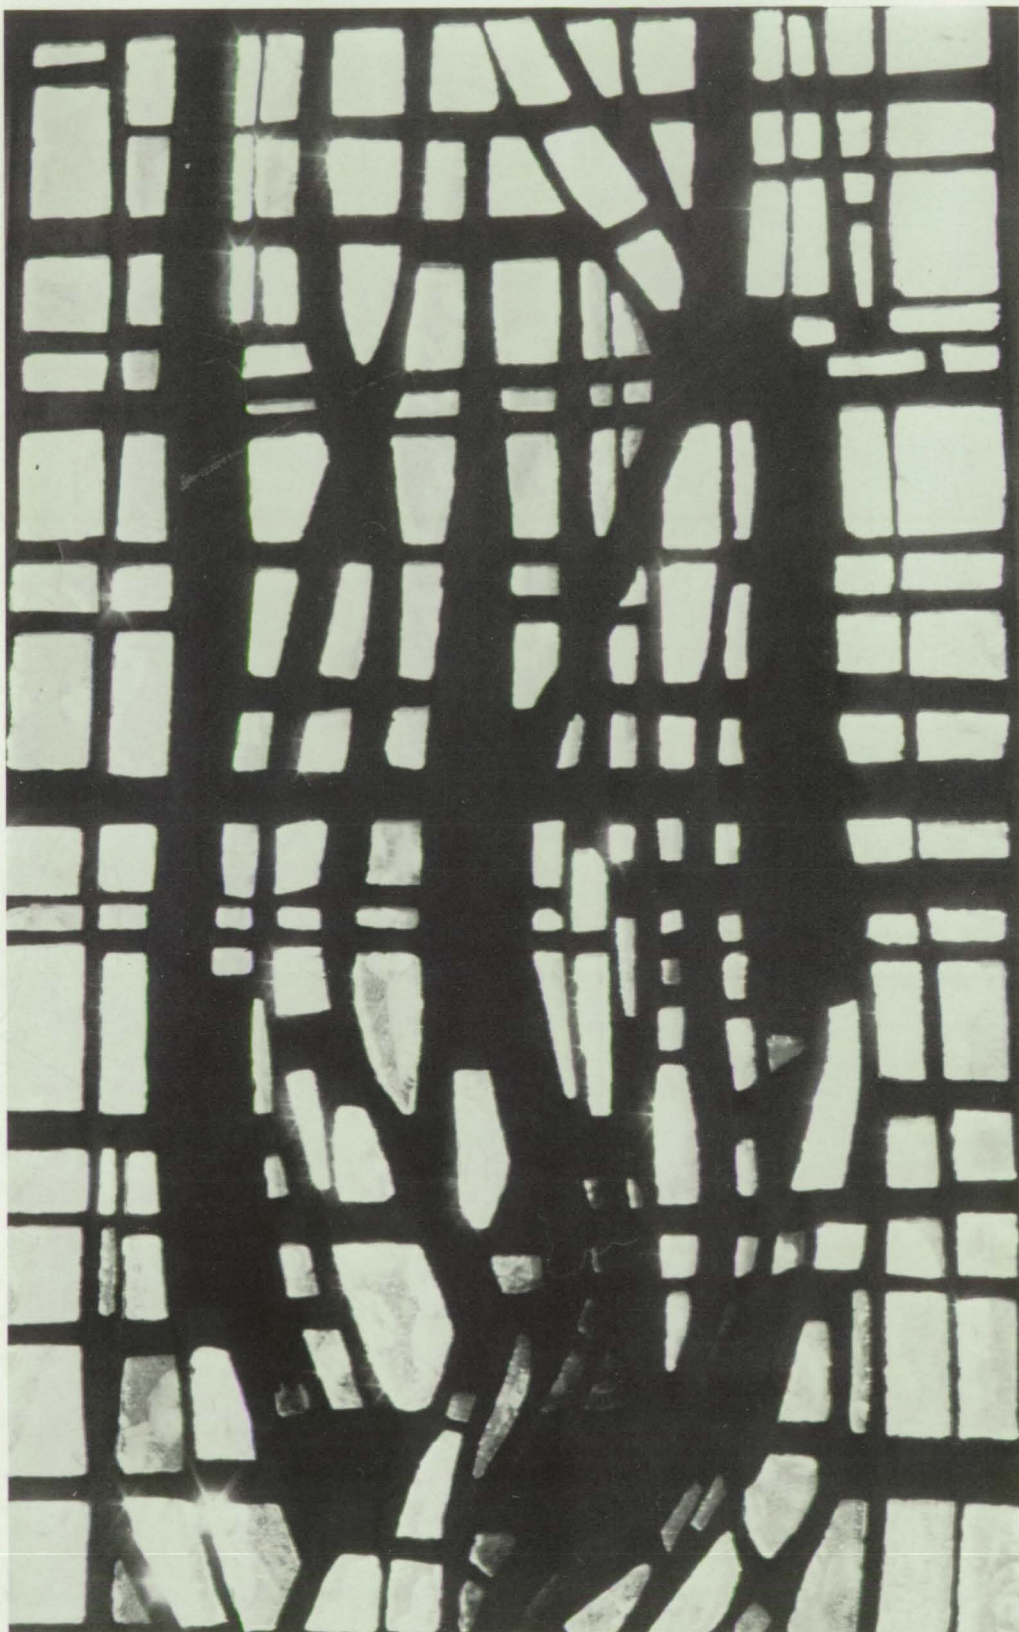

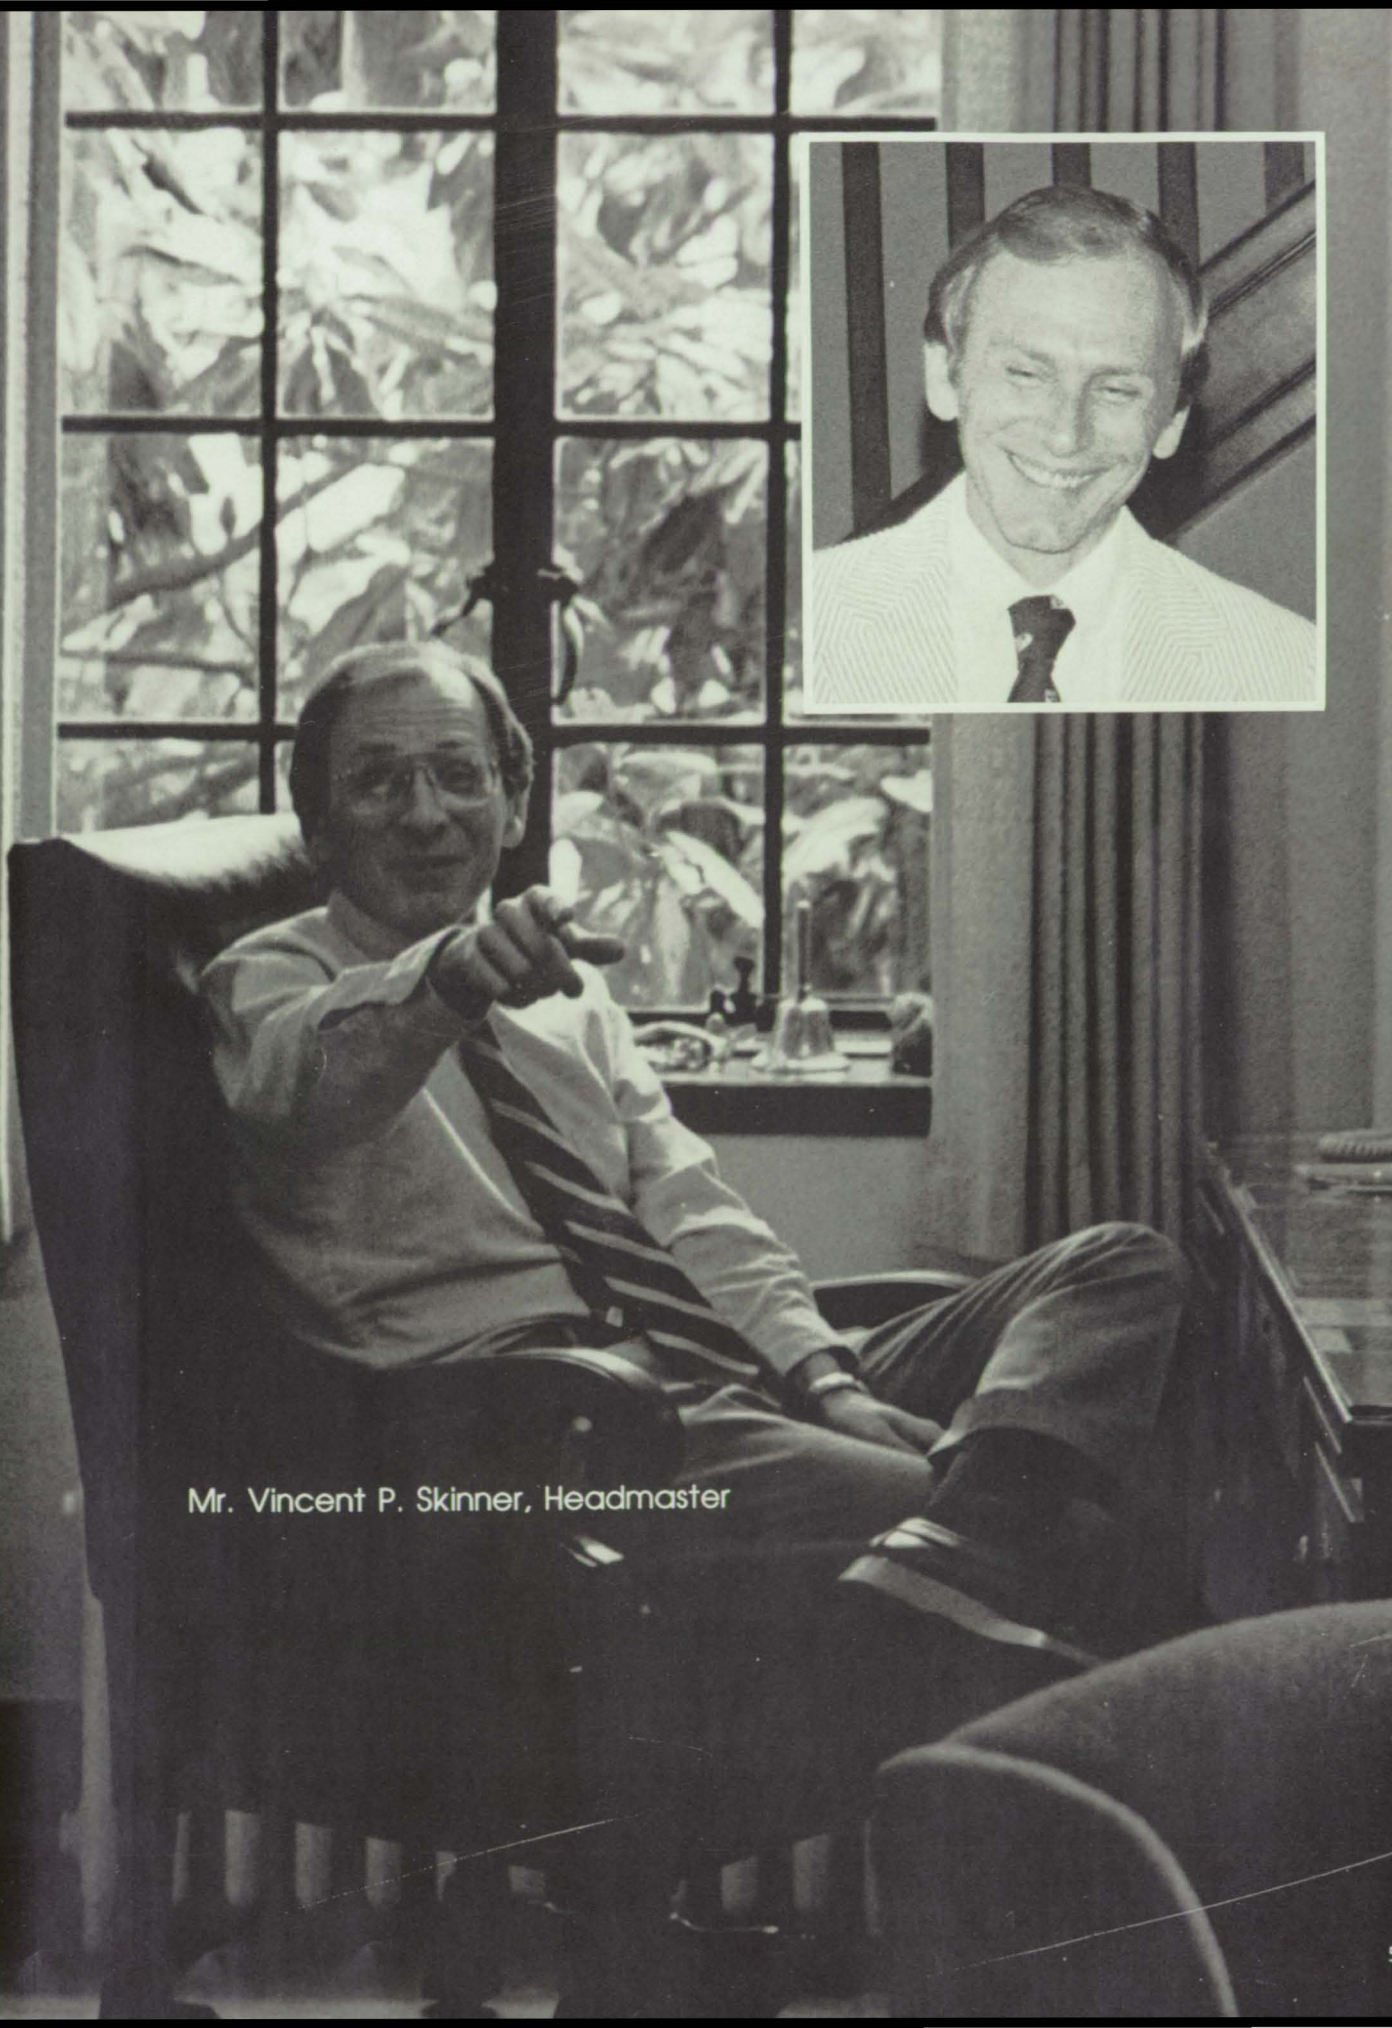

There are three people who are extremely special to the Seniors of 1982. They have always been there - good and bad. From sticking with us for every class picnic, only because we asked you the second day of school. To teaching us the meaning of the "blue bible," along with all those lectures. And finally, to a person who put up with all hassles the seniors gave, because you were there. You are not just faculty and staff, but friends. The Senior Class of 1982 would like to dedicate this Shield to those who were our Shield: Mr. Timson, Ms. Soucey, and Miss Horton.

Thank you.

Every moment,
everything would change, pass over
and would not be able to come back,

But, just only two things never pass over and change...

...These are friendship and parent love...
Everytime, and every moment
These are staying in my heart and support me.

Now, I have to leave...
But even I could not stay with you,
distance between you and I,
always close, each other.
I believe that...

Fly by night away from here,
change my life again.
Fly by night good-bye my dear,
my life is ahead of me
And I just can't pretend.

We have our memories, plenty to last.
We've started our futures and begun
Remembering our past.
Will I ever find what I'm looking for?
Will someone I need knock on my door?
No one knows what games that fate
might play.
What will I find tomorrow, what will I find today?
No one knows what the future holds,
We have to be brave and bold.
The whole world's waiting for you and I
To spread our wings and fly.
But we can't experience tomorrow until
We live today.
So, let yourself go, spread your wings
And fly away.
When I get to tomorrow, I'll tell it that You're on your way.

What does boarding life mean to you?

Boredom! Close friends, food runs.

Pizza . . . Talking on the phones . . . smoking room talk . . . eating too much!

No boyfriends!

Pizza, "I should be studying," Smoking room gang, Pizza!

And your opinion??

Gross pizza!

Popcorn parties, midnight seances, impromptu swimming sessions . . . Mostly, good times with my friends.

Boring!

Saturday nights waiting for a food run.

Class

Color

Yellow ties win the booby prize.

Blueberries roll in a close second.

Night

The mean greens show their spirit!

Tomatoes get squashed!

It's time for us to grow,
